Dear Luke,

Congratulations! On behalf of the faculty and staff, we are pleased to offer you admission to York College of Pennsylvania. You're in! We have reserved your current academic program selection as Mechanical Engineering for Fall 2024, and we welcome you to the Spartan community. You can be proud of this accomplishment because you were selected from a very talented pool of candidates. Should you wish to change your academic program selection, please contact your admission counselor.

From your application, we recognize many positive qualities you share with other successful York College students. Since our founding in 1787, our students have maintained a legacy of academic and personal excellence that has contributed to our reputation as a college of distinction. From Day One, York College students experience a welcoming and inclusive campus community that offers hundreds of ways to get involved and abundant hands-on learning experiences.

As a hardworking and motivated student, you will benefit from opportunities like internships, faculty mentorship, and project-based learning experiences that will prepare you for your academic and professional career. At York, students of every major participate in experiential learning and constantly test their knowledge in real-world opportunities. Outside the classroom, York College students can experience, lead, and thrive in more than 100 clubs and organizations, world-class arts and cultural events, leadership and engagement programs, and 24 NCAA Division III sports.

Luke, your Day One starts now! We are so excited for you to join us as part of the Spartan family. To accept your offer of admission, please submit your deposit at www.ycp.edu/deposit and take the next step toward your Day One at York College of Pennsylvania. Understand that your admission to York is contingent on your successful completion of high school and the submission of your official, final high school transcript.

You will find your educational home within the York College community. We look forward to welcoming you to campus and getting to know you as you grow as a student. Again, congratulations!

Sincerely,

Sharon Mulligan
Interim Director of Admissions
York College of Pennsylvania
